I would like to welcome all the new and returning members to Dogs West as we complete the recent membership renewals in July.

Firstly, for those that have not yet paid your membership fees, especially those with Prefixes, please do not delay. If you cannot locate your email or paper Invoice, call the office and we can assist you further.

Breeders, please double check and ensure your memberships are paid and up to date BEFORE 30 September to avoid the requirement to re-sit Section A of the Prefix Exam.

Secondly, this month we have held the 2023 Elections on 25 August and the AGM on 30 August. You will find Election results on the Dogs West's website Home Page and within the next edition.

I was blown away by the positive feedback of the new electronic voting option, thank you to everyone that used this option and for all that provided overall feedback on the packs and process.

Lastly, I would like to raise a concern about treatment of fellow exhibitors and of Dogs West officials at Conformation Shows, in recent months. Disappointingly, I have seen a number of Chief Steward reports outlining what I would describe as 'yelling' or frustration. This is extremely uncomfortable for by-standers, and negatively impacts on the wellbeing of our volunteers.

All complaints received regarding this aggressive or unpleasant behaviour will be taken seriously by the Office and the Governance Pillar. I ask for everyone's support to stamp this out permanently, to ensure that our volunteers are safe, and exhibitors get to experience a positive competitive environment.

Please do not stay quiet, come forward, seek the Chief Steward and together let's improve the culture of our Shows.

Marzel Norton, Chief Executive Officer

I just had the pleasure of watching the WA State Junior Handler final held on a bright sunny winter day at Dogs West. It was a joy to watch our young and very talented handlers from the three age groups go through their paces under the watchful eye of Matthew Smith from South Australia. A stellar performance from the winner and runner-up, with the overall quality through all the heats outstanding. Congratulations to all our Junior Handlers, and many thanks to everyone who contributed and worked throughout the year to make it happen.

Special mention must go to the tiny tot handlers who injected a lot of fun into the event.

Once again the Perth Royal Show gives our Members an opportunity to showcase their dogs to the general public. The Dog Pavilion is one of the most visited during the Show and the engagement with the public is so worthwhile. Good luck to everyone competing, and thank you to those who help to make these shows happen.

Whilst I was not able to attend the Dogs West Annual General Meeting this year, my congratulations go to those who have been successful in the Elections, and my sincere thanks to those who were not successful for nominating, and for work done for the Association in the past.

As I write this report the voting process is still underway with our first step forward to providing better service to our Members in play with electronic voting through Vero available. Change can sometimes be confusing and challenging, but can also be very rewarding, and I am pleased to note the very many positive comments made by Members on this initiative.

It has been another challenging year, and I look forward to working with Governing Council and our CEO to continue to improve our Member communication offering and support to all our Affiliated Clubs.

Pamela Campbell, President

2023 PERTH AGILITY NATIONALS

The 2023 Perth Agility Nationals is done and it feels all a little surreal that an event that took literally years to plan for can be done and dusted, all in the space of six beautiful Perth weather days. What an amazing event, words hardly seem enough to encapsulate the experiences for all involved in this occasion. Yet here we are, Gail and I and our intrepid band of stalwart Working Party members without whom none of this would have been possible. The Nationals Working Party would formally like to acknowledge the efforts of each and every one of the WA dog community who assisted in helping our group ensure we made this event a Nationals that not only WA remembers, but that all our visiting Eastern State and International agility people will look back on with fondness and enjoyment. WA welcomed them all and were delighted to share our world class facilities, event grounds and stunning weather with every one of them.

Starting on the Tuesday we commenced with a community BBQ where everyone was able to meet and greet our competitors and Judges and be welcomed by the Working Party, Dogs West and our major sponsor Eukanuba. Following the community lunch we were all able to watch the five state teams run in our National Teams Competition under our judges from Finland (Sari Mikkila) and New Zealand (Kevin Burnette) who laid out lovely flowing courses to get the first event underway. Some fabulous runs were put down by handlers from all over the country and support for every team was evident from the spectating crowds. We all want our home state to win but one of the more unique aspects of agility is no matter who you go for, a good run is a good run and it's lovely to see handlers congratulating each other no matter how competitive!

Ultimately the results see the team with the least amount of faults and DQs win and to say the WA team did their entire state proud would be putting it mildly.

- 1st Place - Western Australia
- 2nd Place - South Australia
- 3rd Place - New South Wales
- 4th Place - Victoria
- 5th Place - Queensland

Congratulations to Team WA - Kriszty Kelly with Ag Ch Wicked Born To Be Wild, Sarah Ogden with Ag Ch Netherdee Revvin It Up, Nic Ford with Ag Ch Tiakina Time to Shine, Jessica Burren with Tri Ch (A/R) Bursarius Hakuna Matata, Jerline Chen with Scoobiee (our Reserve who stepped up as Gina was injured) and Gina O'Keefe with Millison Park Bizzie.

Wednesday dawned cold and clear and the rest of the event got underway. Over the course of the next three days dogs and handlers competed across eight different rings and under several different judges. Each day providing an opportunity for handlers to get their dogs into the Finals' Day on Sunday. Each team had the potential of having four runs each day - two jumping runs and two agility runs if they chose to run in the Open classes (a class with a distance handling line challenge where all levels and heights compete against each other). Whilst the Working Party has always been a little saddened by the COVID delays and increased costs associated with flying dogs causing the numbers entering (people travelling) to drop from our original 2020 dates (we had nearly 3.5 thousand runs entered for 2020, just under 2 thousand for 2023), the lower numbers did allow for more relaxed event days with handlers being able to make sure they had time to walk courses and run their dogs without the worry of having to be in other rings straight away. At the conclusion of each ring, each day, handlers and helpers alike stepped up to ensure the rings were set for the following day and this meant most handlers and their dogs got to head back home or to accommodation by late afternoon. Everyone was keen to get a good night's sleep ready for the next day.

The WA weather really turned it on and whilst the mornings made even the Victorians concede that layers might be warranted, the days were a perfect temperature and the Nationals Working Party were absolutely delighted with the perfect agility weather for dogs and handlers. By the end of the events on Friday, some of the finalists were already aware of who they were but it was time to wait and see who made the unfilled spots in the Finals. A points-based formula used by the Working party to ensure the fairest allocation of Finals berths would be worked out and triple checked by Saturday lunchtime.

Saturday was the day of our Inaugural Junior Teams event and Games, for some a day off and for others a more relaxing play in agility. When WA first added the Junior Teams event to the Nationals schedule in 2020 we were pleased when several states said they would be sending a team. However, sadly, due to the pandemic and air fare costs that seemed no longer possible. However, we wanted to show support for our Juniors here in WA and we still held the event with Seth and Kira Rogers running courses by our international judges. It was lovely to see them so supported by those watching. Onto the Games and less rings running combined with lower numbers meaning plenty of relaxing flexibility implemented making sure no one needed to be in three rings at once. Games presentations took place at the conclusion of Set Up for Finals Day and then it was one last sleep before the culminating day of the 2023 Nationals.

Finals Day dawned crisp and clear. It was a big schedule to get through. Eight rings, eight courses, 318 Finals runs with the Masters and Novice Jumping finals being the biggest. The Working Party had feared that we would need to have some crossover with more than one ring running at a time, but with some creative scheduling and having only certain groups walking the next event while one event was running, we were able to juggle it so spectators for the day did not miss a thing. It was truly lovely to see three sides of each ring surrounded by spectators enjoying our sport and showing their appreciation for the efforts of every team lucky enough to step to the line. The whole crowd moved en masse at the end of each event to the next ring to eagerly watch the next runs. The first event of the day started at just after 8am - our Novice Agility finalists and concluded just before 5pm with the very exciting Masters Jumping finals course and judge Sari Mikkila.

WA did themselves extremely proudly in the finals - plenty of fast clear rounds were seen despite the nerves and the pressure handlers felt now they'd finally made it to that point. Agility is a sport that can be as much mental as it is physical and it was so pleasing to see so many in our community rise to the occasion. Here are the official results (WA winning unless noted):

Whilst all our winners were definitely grinners myself and Gail as Co-Chairs of this event feel it appropriate to make sure our thanks and appreciation is embedded in ink here as well. The list of winners and the list of sponsors, volunteers and contributors to this event are equally important. We were bowled away by the appreciation shown IN ACTION at the conclusion of the Finals events. Gail, myself, Meegan Smith and Sarah Wickham were tucked away in the clubhouse getting everything ready for the presentations whilst the rest of our Working Party team seemed to just seamlessly oversee the complete dismantling of rings, bunting and equipment all by the time we were ready to go with presentations. Many, MANY hands made the amazing set up go down quickly. Thank you to our team.

ATO INFORMATION FOR BREEDERS OF DOMESTIC ANIMALS

People who breed domestic animals and who are in business, are primary producers and need to know about the tax rules that apply to them.

The ATO recently updated its primary producing activities web content to help clients understand their obligations and published a small business newsroom article on this topic.

<https://www.ato.gov.au/Business/Small-business-newsroom/Employers/Breeding-your-pet---That-s-primary-production/>

We could do a reminder about membership renewals for breeders?

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Conflict resolution is a valuable skill that can be applied in various aspects of life, including personal relationships, work environments, and, of course, sports. Here are the five key points for effective conflict resolution:

1. Stay Calm and Listen Actively: Remain composed and actively listen to the other person's perspective without interruptions or defensiveness.
2. Focus on the Issue, Not Personalities: Avoid personal attacks and concentrate on the specific problem at hand.

3. Find Common Ground and Compromise: Identify shared interests and be open to compromise to reach a mutually satisfying resolution.
4. Use "I" Statements and Take Responsibility: Express your concerns using "I" statements and be willing to take responsibility for your actions.
5. Communicate Clearly and Respectfully: Use clear and respectful language when discussing your thoughts and needs.

Remember, conflict is a natural part of human interactions, and learning to navigate and resolve conflicts constructively can lead to stronger relationships, increased understanding, and a more harmonious environment overall.

READY TO TRIAL?

You have your dog registered with Dogs West, you have been to training club, you have read the rule book and now you are ready to take the next step, it's time to trial, are you ready? Here are a few tips to help with your first competition with your dog.

- 1. STEWARD - at a couple of events before entering, the organiser's will be very grateful for the offer of help and you will learn so much
- 2. BE PREPARED - Can your dog do all the exercise's reliably in training without the use of treats or toys, the more your dog and you can work together the better your chance of success in the ring
- 3. PRACTICE ON THE GROUNDS - Before the event, try to get to the grounds you are going to be competing on, this will help both you and your dog on the day to be more relaxed as it will be a more familiar environment, if working your dog undercover for the first time this is vital for success as the pavilion can echo and spook your dog
- 4. ARRIVE EARLY - this allows you to park, know where your ring is, have your dog walked and relaxed before your turn

- 5. WATCH - If you are not drawn first, try and watch the round or how the course is being run, pay particular attention to what the steward is calling and how the competitors are reacting, listen to what instructions are being given by the judge
- 6. ENJOY - Remember to breathe and remind yourself that you are at the event to enjoy yourself so try and relax and have a great day

WHAT HAPPENS IF IT ALL GOES WRONG!!!!!!!

Don't Panic, if for whatever reason your dog or you feel too stressed to compete, or the course or the round is too hard for you and your dog, or everything that you have trained seems to have flown out the window, don't stress, take it as a learning curve, work out what you could have done better and try again next time.

Everyone that owns a dog, everyone that has ever competed knows what can go wrong, the dog world is a friendly place and we are all wishing you to do well

So enjoy the journey and see you out there
